Enjoy our carefully crafted wine collection for a magnificent pairing throughout your culinary voyage.

The art of fire-roasting meats was born in the 17th century during the colonial period of Brazil. The creators of this unique cooking technique are the Brazilian cowboys, known as "Gauchos". This cooking breakthrough tale occurred over 300 years ago, when an unknown "Gaúcho" fire-roasted the first Brazilian churrasco (choo-has-sco) at a camp-side feast.

The churrasco (choo-has-sco) tale has many versions, some say that the first fire-roasted meat was beef-ribs, others rib-eye, but apart from nuances this unknown "Gaúcho" changed the Brazilian cuisine forever. For this reason we see the authentic art of roasting fresh meat over hot stone coals, perfectly seasoned with rock salt as a mouthwatering metaphor for our culinary voyage to Brazil.

As proud Brazilians who love our country's culture, tradition and obviously food, our founders envisioned a place that would take its guests to Brazil through a unique culinary experience. However the only way of actually realizing this vision is by passion and the wine culture apart from the obvious pairing reasons, shares the same passion that us Brazilians do in hospitality.

Our wine collection was carefully crafted to magnificently pair our food offerings. With all the nuances wine pairing our goal is to transport you and your guest on a culinary voyage to the heart of the Brazilian cuisine through a unique wine pairing experience. At Galetto making the best Brazilian "churrasco" (choo-has-sco) is simply a result of a warmth cultural sharing experience.
